

Jason N. Smitherman
Bio

Education: BS Political Science, Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, OK, 1984

Professional Experience:

Assistant to the Majority Leader, Oklahoma House of Representatives, 1985;
Dir. Constituent Services, Office of the Governor, State of Oklahoma 1987-1990;
Administrator, Oklahoma Alternative Fuels Program 1990-1996
Risk Manager, State of Oklahoma, 1996-2001
Risk Manager, State of Georgia, 2001-2003
Risk Manager, City of Oklahoma City, 2003-

Awards/Achievements:

“Top Ten Innovative Programs”, Council of State Governments, 1993;
“National Energy Award”, U.S. Department of Energy, 1994;
“National Achievement Award”, Natural Gas Vehicle Coalition, 1995.

Current Professional Affiliations:

Member, Risk and Insurance Management Society (RIMS)
Member, Public Risk Management Association (PRIMA)
Board of Director’s, Oklahoma Self-insured Association

Past Professional Affiliations:

State Risk and Insurance Managers Association (STRIMA)
Member, President’s Federal Fleet Conversion Task Force, Economics Group, 1993
Vice-Chairman, American Society of Advanced Fuels Technology, 1996
Vice-Chairman, Center for Transportation Training & Research Advisory Board, Texas Southern University, Houston, Texas

Personal: Married to Pam, father of four children: Emily, Luke, Elizabeth and Samuel.
Reside in Edmond, Oklahoma.